Dell Pryor at the Detroit Artists Market

May 1 - 30, 2020

Opening Reception: May 1, 6-9 p.m.

Dell Pryor is a trailblazer. Over the past half century, Dell has run the iconic Dell Pryor Gallery—known for highlighting local and national artists, performance art, and Jazz—in various locations, including Eastern Market, Harmonie Park and, most recently, Midtown Detroit. Ms. Pryor brings her considerable experience and talent to DAM with this soon-to-be-named exhibition.

¿GENDER?

June 26 - July 25, 2020

Opening Reception: June 26, 6-9 p.m.

¿GENDER? is an exhibition about how people see themselves. The concept of gender has had many reformations, and our modern-day language reflects that. In this exhibition, we're looking at artists' depictions of gender identities, including cisgender, binary, non-binary, agender, gender fluid, androgyny, genderqueer, transgender, and transsexual.

Multifaceted Narratives: An Exploration of Black Figurative Art

August 14 - September 12, 2020

Opening Reception: August 14, 6-9 p.m.

Multifaceted Narratives is a multimedia exhibition featuring Black figurative works by Black artists based in Detroit. This exhibition seeks to present complexities of the Black narrative through artwork that is often revelatory of personal experiences. Overall, this exhibition presents the literal and figurative taking up of space in the gallery and the art-historical canon.

Maya Stovall and Todd Stovall: Positions

September 25 - October 24, 2020

Opening Reception: September 25, 6-9 p.m.

In this concurrent solo exhibition, Maya Stovall and Todd Stovall face head-on the tension of being artists with the same last name. In an exhibition spanning objects, technology, and more, the artists push both their respective practices to the limit, linking post-minimalism, research, and ancestral spiritual practices.
